

MURRAY ENERGY CORPORATION'S
ANDALEX RESOURCES, INC. SUBSIDIARY
ACQUIRES INTERMOUNTAIN POWER AGENCY'S
INTEREST IN WEST RIDGE MINE

Price, Utah, September 29, 2010 -- Murray Energy Corporation's ("Murray Energy") Subsidiary Company, ANDALEX Resources, Inc. ("ANDALEX"), has acquired the Intermountain Power Agency's ("IPA") one-half (1/2) interest in the West Ridge Mine situated in Carbon County, Utah.

Since 1998, ANDALEX and IPA have owned the West Ridge Mine jointly, and, with today's announcement, ANDALEX is acquiring the remaining interest that it does not already own.

IPA will continue to be the largest customer of the West Ridge Mine. No changes in the day-to-day operations of the Mine are expected.

The transaction also involved the acquisition by ANDALEX of IPA's interest in other properties and assets situated in Emery County, Utah. Murray Energy, through its subsidiary, UtahAmerican Energy, Inc., already owns and operates the Lila Canyon Mine near East Carbon, Utah.
